Mission Emphasis Week—The Rapha House

Volume 7, Issue 3, March 2011

February 8 to 11 was our annual Mission's Emphasis Week featuring the ministry of the Rapha House in Southeast Asia. Emily Dewitt traveled from Joplin Missouri to challenge our students, staff and area friends to open our eyes to the need of others around the world. The Rapha House works against human trafficking of young women in Southeast Asia. They rescue young girls, house them, teach them skills—all the time loving them in the Name of Jesus and helping them recover their lives. Emily's statistics and experiences were both heart-breaking and compelling. Her talks encouraged each of us to be more involved in the lives of the people we see each day and in the support of those that give their lives to help these girls. She urged us to consider how we could give our lives more fully to serving God. A special service was held on Thursday night involving several groups from the community. A prayer room was set up for the week and much time was given to looking outward to the needs of others. Check out the ministry of Rapha house at <http://www.freedomforgirls.com>.

Energizing Churches Network

February 19th church leaders gathered on campus for a day of challenge and insight at our annual ECN Conference. The theme was: "Transitions in Ministry—Planning Tomorrow and Next Year." The opening speaker was Myron Wells, preaching minister at Redmond Christian Church in Redmond, Oregon. He spoke on You Can't Do It Alone—the importance of Patience, Planning, Preparation & Partnership. There were workshops, lunch, and plenty of time to fellowship with other church leaders. College President Terry Stine concluded the day with a challenging message to prepare for transitions, be open to God's leading and then be available to do God's work.

The entire conference will be repeated at Oregon Christian Convention Center in Turner Oregon on March 12th. Call OCC to sign up. Cost is $20 per person and $75 for a group of four.

Check out the New Boise Bible College Web-Site

The last week of February a new web site was launched to replace the BBC site—www.boisebible.edu. The new site has been in the works for many months and represents much effort from our Development and IT Departments. Mark Stevens coordinated the effort and Cole White coded and organized the information. Thanks go to Richard Taylor of Seattle for helping build the frame-work for the site. Let us know what you think—both suggestions for improvements and the features you like. You can now give on-line, apply on-line and listen to chapel sermons!

Plan Ahead: Heritage Weekend

Winema Christian Camp will feature Terry Stine and Ron Henie for their Christian Heritage Conference over Memorial Day. They will be speaking on the Book of Acts. The weekend goal is to have significant reflection and contemplation on historic issues and current trends among churches whose history, tradition, and goals are part of what is known as the Restoration or Stone-Campbell Movement. There are activities planned for the entire family. Contact Winema for registration details. <http://winema.org/>

Take Notice of the Christian Standard March 13 Issue Boise Bible College along with other Bible colleges around the country are featured in the annual Christian College Edition. The articles and reports are an encouragement. Note the pictures, ads and reports that show a need for each church to find “JUST ONE” student to prepare for ministry. Please continue your efforts to help influence a young person to consider ministry by attending Bible College. You may be the one able to provide them a scholarship, pray for them or give them a word of encouragement. Thank you for your partnership with Boise Bible College.

REMEMBER - ENCOURAGE JUST ONE STUDENT TO CONSIDER MINISTRY AT BBC!
