Celebrate Christmas by Giving

Giving Tuesday is Practiced by Many

We have Thanksgiving - a day to celebrate the abundance of God's blessing with good food and time with family. Then we have Black Friday when many are buying gifts for their loved ones. Now the Tuesday after Thanksgiving has been declared "Giving Tuesday" - a national day of giving at the start of the annual holiday season. It celebrates and encourages giving to missions, food banks, clothing drives, and educational groups.

As a Christian based college we depend on the gifts of many to sustain our mission of equipping leaders for ministry in the church. Will you consider joining others in this period of giving and make a special gift to Boise Bible College? Thank you, we value your partnership!

Giving to Boise Bible College

We are thankful to every one of our friends who provide for the support of scholarships, building projects and general operating expenses for our students and faculty. Your gifts help Christ's disciples equip for ministry and to serve as His ambassadors, impacting their communities and world beyond. Listed here are some areas to consider as you explore ways to support Boise Bible College. Would you consider becoming a partner of BBC?

3. By a gift of stock or property.
4. By giving through your Estate or Life Insurance Policy.

Merry Christmas!

Our prayers are for you and your family to celebrate the birth of our Savior in such a way the world around you sees God's Love through YOU!

Steve Bragg (BBC, 1979) is a missionary and church planter working with River Rock Church in the Philippines. The recent Typhoon Yolanda devastated much of the country and put Steve and the church in a unique position to mobilize aid quickly and share the gospel to those in need.

Operation Philippines is a relief effort sponsored by River Rock Church and exists to bring immediate and sustaining relief to the people of Panay in the island nation of the Philippines. The typhoon took lives, destroyed homes and churches, ruined food supplies, and displaced thousands of people. While the church itself has suffered damages, they are reaching out to help their neighbors and surrounding communities.

Through this effort they are feeding hundreds of families, rebuilding homes and sharing Christ's love. The people find it unbelievable that someone would care enough to help them. Many said even with tears "Never has anyone come to our help from any typhoon." For more information visit <http://www.operationphilippines.com/>

ICOM was Much More than Anticipated

Boise Bible College sent 45 people to the International Conference on Missions in Kansas City. Our students were blessed and even overwhelmed by the number and vastness of the missions they met. The workshops were insightful. Our own Curt Nordhielm is the Chairman of the Continuation Committee for the event. Our intercultural professor, Danny Harrod was renewing and making new contacts throughout the event. Our President met with other presidents from Christian Colleges around the country and many leaders from churches. We met several long-time donors and alumni during the long weekend. ICOM is a refreshing few days that you should not miss! Plan to attend next year's event in Columbus Ohio. Perhaps the icing on the cake was that we had several students make life-time commitments to serve in mission work as God calls them!
