From the President...

Reaping the Harvest

We have been praying that God would send more students to prepare workers to “bring in the harvest from the fields.” Jesus asked, in Matthew 9:38, that the Lord would send out workers. We are excited to tell you that they are coming to Boise Bible College! Students are coming in record numbers, more and more are graduating every year; lives and cultures around the world are being impacted for Christ.

Excitement is in the air here at BBC because our fall enrollment of 212 students represents a 15% growth, and we expect even more students for the spring semester! It’s a joy to look forward to similar growth in our number of graduates each year.

In Acts, chapter 28, we see Paul, chained and imprisoned; but we read that the Gospel message has been set free to break the bondage of sin around the world. The exciting account of Peter, Paul, Timothy, and their co-workers ends at this point, but we know the story continues. In my Acts classes I tell the students that “Acts 29” includes our names as we share that same message. We cannot fully understand why God acts in certain ways, but I can assure these young men and women that they are a part of God’s plan. The world is waiting for them to share their testimony. It is an emotional thought that they will imitate the laborers in Acts, as they share the Gospel with people here in Boise, in their home states, and around the world—boldly and without hindrance.

We need your help for this to happen. Yes, we need you to share financially to raise up the dormitory and student center. But even more than that, we need you to pray for the Lord to raise up your children, your grandchildren, and the youth in your church for the most important “job” they could ever prepare for. Money, power, and position won’t save them, nor will these things help people around the world who are enslaved to sin. Jesus prayed for more workers to set the captives free. Pray that God will send your young people to Boise Bible College to prepare for ministry. The need is great—we need the best and we need the bold.

Thank you for all you do for Boise Bible College. Please stop by for a visit and to meet our students. BUT, be careful...the excitement around here is catching!

Terry E. Stine, President

Our God Specializes in the Impossible!

Our dorms are full this fall, and we needed to rent apartments down the street to house the extra students. We have plans to complete a dorm project that would give housing for about 80 additional students. Please join with our staff and leadership as we pray every day for the funding needed to finish our dorm project. To finish this and the attached student center, we need $2.5 million. A total of $5 million will pay off all of our building debt. PRAY that our God, Who specializes in the impossible, will use His people to provide the needed funds. If you know of someone we should talk to about funding this project, please call David Davolt or President Terry Stine.

Looking for a Speaker for a Camp, Retreat or Rally?

Our professors and staff are requested as speakers for retreats, summer camps, mission fairs, or other special occasions. We enjoy any partnership we can have with churches, especially in the Northwest. If you have a need for a speaker, please contact our Development Department or call President Stine to see who could best meet your need.

This month Professor Chuck McCoy will be teaching in Severn, Maryland and in Gooding, Idaho. Danny Harrod will be a speaker for a mission fair in Spokane, Washington, and Dr. Jim Byerly will be at the Mission Fair in Vernal, Utah. Others will be out as well. Plan early and you will be blessed!
I AM … is the theme on campus this year. This fall we are hearing from chapel speakers focusing on this topic as it relates to who God is. Next semester we’ll switch the topics to how God relates to us, with a focus on action in the community. You are welcome to attend our chapel on Tuesday or Thursday mornings for an inspirational time of connection. You can also download the sermons on our website.

In August the student leaders returned from their Leadership Summit at Trinity Pines in Cascade, Idaho just hours before the new students arrived and the orientation and registration process began. Several churches from the Boise area took part in the activities by providing meals and special items to be included in welcome packets for every student. Orientation activities included receptions at President Stine’s home, a bonfire, and a “how to survive BBC” session presented as a gift to the new students by the student leaders.

There were 160 adventurous souls who braved the Payette River on the annual whitewater raft trip this year. With 20 rafts in the river, and a BBQ dinner served at the exit point, a great time was had by all.

Pride Week was sponsored this year by the student led Sports Committee the week of September 12-17. Senior class leader, Joe Hansen organized a great week that included activities to promote college spirit. The week concluded with the “Running of the Lions,” a run/walk event we used as a fundraiser to support student activities throughout the year. This, our first annual, raised over $2200 and attracted 37 students who worked to get sponsors to support then in one of four distances (5K, 10K, ½ marathon and full marathon). Idaho Running Company, Boise’s largest running store, will promote this event next year, giving us the opportunity to host hundreds of runners on our campus and open our fundraising efforts to the running community at large.

Students, staff, and faculty look forward to the all-school fall retreat for a chance to take a break from classes and to spend some time getting acquainted. On September 30-October 1, a great group headed to McCall, Idaho to focus on the theme “I AM...a Story.” All were blessed by the speakers, three adult sponsors at the event, who each shared their own personal testimony of how God has used their story for His purposes.

The events and programs of the first weeks of school, along with those we plan throughout the year, would not happen without the hard work of dedicated student leaders. These students pack the calendar with events geared toward helping their fellow students have a great experience during their time at BBC. The student leaders this year are: Student Council: Jakob King – President; Joe Harper – Vice President; Mark Thometz – Secretary/Treasurer. Class Representatives: Brian Garland – Senior; Katie Harper – Junior; Sara Feaster – Sophomore; Nicole Vigna – Freshman. Class Leaders: Joe Hansen – Senior; Danika Stokes – Junior; Kendall Martin – Sophomore; Collin Barth – Freshman. Committee Leaders: Breann Soucie – Missions; Joe Hansen – Sports; Loren Brenner – Spiritual Life; Joe Miller – Christian Service; Traci Carter – Media.

Board Update

The Board of Directors selected two new members at its September meeting. David Humphreys, Senior Pastor at The King’s Christian Church in Lolo, Montana, and Malcam Moberly, Preaching Minister at Valley Christian Church in Bullhead City, Arizona will each serve a three year term which begins January 1, 2012. Directors who were reelected for another three-year term are Marv Bullock, Harold Gott, and Mike Yunker. Bob Harrod has served three consecutive terms and will retire from the Board at the end of the year. The Board would like to express their gratitude to Bob for his service.

Alumni News

Several events highlighted the beginning of fall for the BBC alumni. A team of nine, “brightly clad” alumni helped the freshmen move into their new dorm rooms during registration. They moved everything from makeup to refrigerators, much to the appreciation of the parents, many of whom had just driven many miles and were travel worn.

We held a prayer breakfast for our alumni in the greater Boise area. Attendees were inspired and encouraged by fellow alumni Daro Thol, Beth Duffel and Ross Knudsen. Everyone was inspired, and we are already making plans for more events. Be watching for when and where they might be. They may be scheduled later in the day as Prayer Brunches.

The BBC Resource, our new alumni newsletter, was published in September and was filled with stories of how God is using our graduates. The next edition will be out in late October. To get your news (position changes, babies, moves, etc) included in a future edition, e-mail info and pictures to jbyerly@boisebible.edu.

Another project we started is to present baby t-shirts to our families with new little ones. The first dozen went out very quickly – our alumni had a lot of babies this summer!

It’s good to visit with and encourage our past students. I’ll be headed through Utah, Wyoming, and Colorado during October. Alumni, please keep in touch. I look forward to hearing from you.
Thanks to Madras Christian Church

Many scholarships are awarded because of the generous contributions of individuals, foundations, and churches. One unique and special scholarship comes from the Madras Christian Church. Many years ago the church set up a fund for Christian College Scholarships. They have designated a $1,000 award to be made to a student from the state of Oregon enrolled at Boise Bible College, studying either missions or preaching and desiring to preach or serve in intercultural settings around the world. This year’s recipient was Jacob Wright from the Milwaukie Christian Church in Milwaukie, Oregon. Jake is a preaching major, has been on mission trips to Haiti, served as a Camp Representative this summer, and traveled with the Crossing Guards for two years. He is a junior, and a leader on campus. Mark Stevens, Assistant Director of Development accompanied Jake to Madras on September 25. Jake was able to thank the congregation in person, as well as preach the sermon that morning. We commend Madras Christian Church for establishing this scholarship, and we commend Jake for his desire to preach the Gospel.

If your church is interested in establishing a scholarship, please contact our Development Department.
We welcome your prayers and support, but, if for some reason you do not want to receive our mailings, please respond to ddavolt@boisebible.edu, or send a note to our office and ask to be removed from the list.
